

A, C: central working ranges. B: approximate joint-region projections.
Chronology and event-process assumptions remain conditional; these bands have different meanings.